Trelawney Stud – Karaka 2021

Lot 4 Savabeel x Okahu Bay, b.c

This Trelawney Stud-bred colt is an October foal and was born and raised on the farm.

He was a solid, muscular foal that has progressed nicely into a quality colt with good size, bone and scope and with a great athletic movement.

This colt is the third foal from Australian Group Three winner Okahu Bay. Her first foal, a filly by More Than Ready named Orakei, was purchased as a yearling by the Australian based Mystery Downs for $150,000 out of Trelawney Stud's 2019 New Zealand Bloodstock draft.

Orakei is in the stable of Ciaran Maher and David Eustace and has made three trial appearances to date.

Okahu Bay's second foal is a Lonhro colt that has been retained by Trelawney Stud and is in pre-training with Daniel Miller with a view to be sold as a tried horse or to be placed with a trainer in Melbourne.

Okahu Bay has a Savabeel filly at foot and was covered by Super Seth in 2020.

Savabeel needs no introduction as one of New Zealand's most prolific sires to date. He continues to produce winners week after week, at any age and over a range of distances.

This colt is bred on the same Savabeel/Flying Spur cross as Group One winner Shillelagh, Group Two winners Tullamore and The Chosen One, and Listed winners You're So Good and Grazia.

"He is bred to be a class three-year-old and looks like he will be a classic type of horse" –Brent Taylor

From a family that will continue to improve:
