

Lot 133

Tarzino x Always In Trouble, by Lope de Vega Gelding

Prepared by Katrina & Simon Alexander

Type	A strong, physical horse with good size and bone. He is balanced with a good girth and top line.
Temperament	A horse with a good attitude but can be sensitive at times. He coped well with the prep and continued to stay settled as pressure increased. He is mentally strong and has a lot of good racehorse qualities to make him trainable but has a certain toughness about him that will make him resilient.
Work ethic	Good attitude towards his work and finds it easy, coping well with the pressure and improved during the prep. He works in a good frame and a settled ride. Snaffle mouth.
Appetite	A very good eater that maintains condition well.
Breeze Up	Could have offered a lot more but was restrained to stay with his mate. It was also the first breeze up for both riders so could have rolled into it a bit earlier to hit the mark faster.
Jockey	Sam Weatherley \ “He is going to be a nice horse. Feels good under you.”
Post Breeze Up	Ate up well and pulled up with no signs of shin soreness, muscular or joint issues.
