2023 READY TO RUN SALE HIGHLIGHTS

Unprecedented results were witnessed across two days of selling at New Zealand Bloodstock's 2023 Ready to Run Sale, confirming the status of the world's best sale of its kind and the confidence in New Zealand-raised and educated two-year-olds.

The momentum increased off the back of Day One's incredible results, which saw the total aggregate increase by 39% to over $35.1 million and no less than 12 lots sell for $500,000 or more.

Another record top price was recorded at $825,000 while the average also increased 21% on last year's Sale to $156,031, a sum which exceeded that of the Book One total for Karaka 2023.

Hong Kong-based buyers were responsible for over $16.7 million in spend across 70 lots, with Australian buyers also strong, securing 60 lots for a total of $8 million in receipts. Domestic buyers made themselves known with $5.5 million spent across the two days while other prominent markets included Malaysia, United Kingdom, Korea, Singapore and China.

The leading buyer title was secured by Hong Kong-based Mr Yeung Kin Man, who secured 12 lots for a total spend of $2.4 million. Of those was Lot 289, an All Too Hard gelding out of Tuscany Lady for $800,000, presented by leading vendors Riversley Park.
